Our collection of natural stones has been carefully considered and curated so that it matches and balances in tone and tactility with our collections of textiles and leathers. Spanning from bold black and silver-grey to more subdued and earthy tones, the selection of marbles and limestone adds an exquisite and elegant touch to the collection.

Wood /

Wendelbo's range of wood has been curated to add a refined and crafted character to our designs - from the rich golden glow of the walnut to the boldness of the black-stained oak. The purity of the natural material demonstrates itself in its inherent warmth, with grains allowed to shine through for an authentic appeal.

Laminate /

While contributing with calm and no-nonsense aesthetics, our black laminate is a highly resilient choice, crafted to last. The hard-wearing material and finish ensure easy maintenance and will retain its appearance with minimal effort.

Glass /

Adding lightness and grace to the density of our upholstered designs, a considered collection of glasses plays a natural part in our material index. The slightly translucent glasses, in either black or brown, simultaneously reflect the surroundings while revealing the silhouette of the underlying designs.
